

Reagan Library Topic Guide – Arif Durrani

Reagan Library topic guides are created by the Library staff from textual material currently available for research use. Material cited in the topic guides come from these collections:

White House Staff and Office Collections

White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files

White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Alphabetical Files.

An overview of the entire Reagan Presidential Collection is available in the Guide to Holdings.

The folders and case files listed on these topic guides may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) restrictions. Most frequently withdrawn material includes national security classified material, personal privacy issues, protection of the President, etc.

DURRANI, ARIF

Scope Note:

As part of the Iran Contra Affair, Arif Durrani was convicted in 1987 of selling guidance systems for anti-aircraft systems to Iran. His conviction was upheld on appeal and he served in federal penitentiaries until 1992. Durrani, a native Pakistani was slated for deportation, but he left the United States voluntarily for Mexico in 1998. Since then he has been continually under suspicion for selling US arms and airplane parts to foreign countries contrary to US export law. He has subsequently been deported from Mexico back to Pakistan. Mr. Durrani steadfastly maintains he was working for and at the behest of the CIA and Col. Oliver North.

The Library material relates to his 1987 conviction.
