

Reagan Library Topic Guide – Grove City College and the Civil Rights Restoration Act

Reagan Library topic guides are created by the Library staff from textual material currently available for research use. Material cited in the topic guides come from these collections:

White House Staff and Office Collections

White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Subject Files

White House Office of Records Management (WHORM) Alphabetical Files.

An overview of the entire Reagan Presidential Collection is available in the Guide to Holdings.

The folders and case files listed on these topic guides may still have withdrawn material due to Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) restrictions. Most frequently withdrawn material includes national security classified material, personal privacy issues, protection of the President, etc.

GROVE CITY COLLEGE AND THE CIVIL RIGHTS RESTORATION ACT

See also: Bob Jones University

Both the Grove City College and the Bob Jones University civil rights cases involved actions of specific universities in relation to their federal funding. In the Grove City case, the Justice Department/Department of Education stated that Grove City, despite assiduously taking no federal funding, was still subject to Title IX application because of the basic aid provided to some of its students. In the Bob Jones University case, the Justice Department threatened lifting the university's tax exempt status due to the University's racial policies and practices. While not directly the same issue, both cases were considered important civil rights cases of the 1980s - involving private higher education and federal aid/policy.
