May I say that this is the first time I've given the Medal of Freedom with the intuition that the recipient might take it home, melt it down and turn it into something that can sold to help the poor. (Laughter.)

And I want to thank you for something, Mother Teresa. Your great work and your life have inspired so many Americans to become personally involved themselves in helping the poor. So many men and women in every area of life, in government and the private sector, have been led by the light of your love. And they have given greatly of themselves. And we thank you for your radiant example.

MOTHER TERESA: I am most unworthy of this generous gift of our President, Mr. Reagan, and his wife, and you people of United States. But I accept it for the greater glory of God and in the name of the millions of poor people that this gift, in spirit and in love, will penetrate the hearts of the people. For in giving it to me, you are giving it to them, to my hands, with your great love and concern.

I've never realized that you loved the people so tenderly. I had the experience, I was last time here, a sister from Ethiopia found me and said, "Our people are dying. Our children are dying. Mother, do something." And the only person that came in my mind while she was talking, it was the President. And immediately I wrote to him and I said, "I don't know, but this is what happened to me." And next day it was that immediately he arranged to bring food to our people. And I can tell you the gift that has come from your people, from your country has brought life, new life to our suffering people in Ethiopia.

I also want to thank the families here in United States for their continual and delicate love that they have given. And they have shown by leaving their children to become sisters and to serve the poor throughout the world. We are now over the world and trying to bring the tenderness and the love of Jesus.

And you, you cannot go where we go. You cannot do what we do. But together, we are doing something beautiful for God. And my gratitude to you, President, and your family, and to your people. It's my prayer for you that you may grow in holiness to this tender love for the poorest of the poor. But this love begins at home, in your family. And it begins by praying together. Prayer gives a clean heart. And a clean heart can see God. And if you see God in each other, you will have love, peace, joy together. And works of love are works of peace. And love begins at home.

So, my sisters, brothers and fathers, you are going -- and all our poor people, thousands and thousands and thousands of people that we deal with, I bring their gratitude to you. And keep the joy of loving. Love them, and begin in your own family first. And that love will penetrate right through the furthest place that anyone has ever been -- there is that tenderness and love of Christ.

And remember that whatever you do to the least, you do it to Him, Jesus said. You did it to Him. What a wonderful opportunity for each one of us to be twenty-four hours with Jesus. And in doing what we are doing, as he said, if you receive a little child in my name, you receive me. If you give a glass of water in my name, you give it to me. What a wonderful and beautiful tenderness and love of Christ for each one of us.

So once more, I want to thank you for this beautiful gift, which I am sure will bring great joy to our people by sharing it with them.

God bless you and keep you in his heart. (Applause.)
