With my best wishes,

Sincerely,

Congratulations on being appointed the Chief of Staff for the President. It is quite an honor and certainly well deserved. If any man in this country can restore dignity and respect to the Reagan presidency, it is you.

I enjoyed talking with you Saturday at the Seaview. As I told you then, I think your willingness to accept this position and put your presidential aspirations on the back burner is one of the most unselfish moves I have ever witnessed in politics. The Republican Party and the country will someday reward you for your dedication. As the old saying goes, what goes around, comes around.

Good luck in this new challenge. My hopes and prayers will

It is indeed a privilege to be almost the next door neighbor to such a dedicated citizen. We share with all Americans the relief and anticipation of a stronger country with you as the Chief of Staff to the President at this critical time in our government.

On a lighter note I hope that the owner of the lot that separates us will want to clean up his mess now that he lives next door to such an important person.

Dear Howard:

Words cannot express my relief and pride that my dear friend has been appointed to serve our President at this most trying time as his Chief of Staff. Your experience in the Senate, as well as your knowledge of dealing with Washington will be a great help not only to President Reagan but to our country. I am very proud that our President has made the right decision and you have accepted this tremendous responsibility to turn things around for the next 20 months.

Both you and I have been in Washington for a long time, you in the public sector, while I work in the private sector. We have seen people come and go. I am reminded of our dear friends, Tommy Corcoran and Bryce Harlow. I even think of Senator Dirksen, a man with such wisdom and integrity. This was a man who got things done. We sure miss him, don't we?

I have confidence you will give our President the kind of advice needed and manage the White House with your special touch. This is to wish you well and if there is any way I can be of help, my office is just two blocks away. I feel much better now that President Reagan has Senator Howard Baker as his Chief of Staff.

Warmest regards to you and Joy and I hope she is feeling well.

On behalf of the National Conference of Republican Mayors and Municipal Elected Officials (NCRMMEO), I am writing to congratulate you on your recent appointment as Chief of Staff to President Reagan. As local elected Republican officials, we extend to you our support during the next two years of the Reagan Administration.

We are confident that through the optimism, leadership and vision of the President and through your ability to work with Congress effectively and advise the President accordingly, this Administration will move forward on the President's domestic and foreign policy initiatives. As Minority Leader of the Senate for four years and Majority Leader for four years, you have served our nation with integrity and faithfully represented the policies of the Republican Party.

We wish you all the best in your new challenges. Please do not hesitate to call me if NCRMMEO can be of assistance in your efforts.

With best wishes, I am

Dear Howard,

Congratulations on your recent appointment to the White House. If anyone in our country can heal the wounds of so many, it is you, Howard.

I can well remember the early fifties, you were just out of college and we were trying to get along with the United Mine Workers. Your complete honesty, always amazed Paul and he was very proud of you, then and always. Paul really looked forward to voting for you for President.

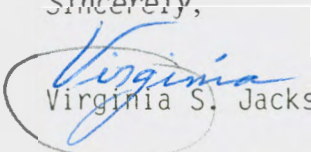

Paul had open-heart surgery in 1982 and in November 1985 died of cancer of the lung.

I also remember, Easter Sunday in 1951 or 1952 when your son, Derek, was born. It made the Dayton, Ohio paper. I still keep in close touch with the West family in Onieda.

Our God daughter, Linda Daly, is married to Colonel Patrick F. Daly, a member of Vice President Bush's Terrorist Team. You may remember Paul talking about our little girl. Her father was killed in WW II in a bombing over Germany in February 1945 and she was born in July 1945. We are very proud of both Linda and Pat and their two boys.

Best wishes to you, Joy and your family during the days ahead and you will all be in my prayers.

Sincerely,

Virginia S. Jackson
