My dear Senator:

As a life time Democrat please permit me to add my voice to the chorus of enthusiastic applause that has greeted your appointment as the new Chief of Staff. You have long enjoyed the respect of both sides of the aisle as a gentleman of the highest - and indeed, unmatched honor, integrity and credibility.

It was great good fortune to know your most distinguished father-in-law from the fall of 1947 when he was serving his last term in the House and I was an Assistant to Attorney General Tom Clark at the Department of Justice. In later years on many occasions I enjoyed the pleasure of many visits with the Senator and our dear friend Ben Regan who came to New York by way of Chicago.

That the Almighty may shower you with His Choicest Blessings to meet the challenges of the days ahead is my fervent prayer.

Yours sincerely,

Peter Campbell Brown

Dear Senator:

I met you a few years ago at a reception in Little Rock with about 1,200 people in attendance. I remarked to you at that time I was confident you remembered me because I had met you a few months before at a reception with about 3,000 folks present.

So much for that. I have been a long time admirer of yours and the President. I think the country is going to be better off with you as Chief of Staff. I feel you have the character, capability and charisma to get the Administration out of this hole.

So, Sir, "Go Get 'Em!"

Best of luck, and kindest regards.

Sincerely yours,

RPT/dm

Dear Mr. Baker,

I'm no longer sure of how to correctly address you. I want to say Honorable Howard Baker because that is the first word that comes to my mind when ever your name is mentioned.
My parents before me felt the same way.
If you ever do get to run for President - & I am still living, mine will certainly be one vote you can count on.
I was looking forward to that privilege in the next election.

Meanwhile tho, I want to congratulate you for accepting the great responsibility
President Reagan has entrusted to you.
You, our president, his wife, and all the leaders of our nation, have my constant prayers during these troubled times - just as they always do, through good times & bad.
May you feel the prayers of so many as you assume your new position in our government.
God Bless you! Sincerely,
Lazelle Cook
