Dear Mr. Baker;

I want to thank you for being the kind of person you have just proven yourself to be by accepting the position of President Reagan's Chief-of-Staff.

You are indeed a rarity today to put aside your dreams for the good of our Country. You have my utmost respect.

I am so sick of hearing the radical press work so hard to divide our great Country to ruin the President. We should be pulling together without all the political in-fighting. I hope President Reagan will continue his program and with God's help get us headed back in the direction my fore-fathers intended it to be.

I think President Reagan has been the best President in my lifetime. I will be 74 years old soon.

I know you will be an asset to the President and our Country of which I am fiercely proud.

God bless you.

Sincerely,
Beatrice G. Taylor

Mr. Howard Baker
Chief of President's staff
The White House
Washington, D.C. - 205 00-0001

Dear Senator Baker:

After weeks of depressing news from Washington, D.C., it is wonderful to hear of something exciting happening there.

Although I have ardently hoped that you will move to the White House in 1989 as our new President, I am happy that you have accepted the post of assisting the President in reorganizing the White House staff, the reputation of which sank so low that their modus operandi was branded as chaotic and impotent.

With the rest of patriotic citizens I am praying for your successful reaching the objective of this herculean task.

Your eminent role in the very center of government power inspires assurance that the country can look forward to the President being able to surround himself with persons endowed with character of statemanship.

Sincerely yours,

Oldrich R. Mojzisek

Dear. Mr. Baker;

Fourteen years ago this month on the 11th, I had the pleasure of meeting you at a luncheon in your honor, at Pensacola Jr. College. Since then, we have corresponded frequently, and I have faithfully followed your career. If you recall, I have Cerebral Palsy, but that doesn't stop me from getting out to vote! You knew (whoops!) I would have put an "X" by your name for President!

So today, I am writing to offer you my sincere congratulations to you and your family and staff on your new appointment as Chief of Staff. Now things will run a lot smoother. God guide and protect you each day in your work.

Hope to hear from you, and if you're in Pensacola again, please let me know.

Very sincerely yours,
Lauren Petre

Dear Mr. Baker:

A remarkable characteristic of the population in a republican form of government is the presence of able individuals willing to serve in difficult times. You are one of those persons!

Thank you for placing the interests of the Country, the Republican Party, and the President above your personal interests.

Very truly yours,

Dear Senator Baker

Reference: Your Latest Position

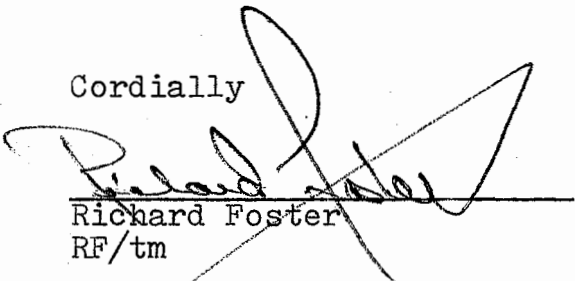

Really loving Tennessee and its people, I have watched your career through the years-- and now, am jubilant that you are where you are and doing what you are doing.

Having grown-up in Mississippi, the son of a Mayor of a small town in that State (Maben, Mississippi), I went on to college at the University of Tennessee in Knoxville at the time that you were first running for office in Tennessee. I graduated from U.T. and arrived in New York.

Tennessee is proud-- this transplanted Mississippian to New York is also proud and relieved that This President has selected the best that there is: Senator Howard Baker of Tennessee .

My Best!

Cordially

Dear Senator Baker:

This is to congratulate you on your appointment by President Reagan as his Chief of Staff.

Your many years as a dedicated public servant, your extensive legislative experience, and your brilliant track record as an excellent exponent of our most cherished Republican principles will be invaluable at this crucial time. Additionally, your well earned reputation as a mediator and conciliator will be instrumental in helping the President carry through to completion his outstanding presidency.

Best wishes for a most succesful and rewarding experience at the White House.

Respectfully yours,

Charles M. Salas

Thank you for the service you are doing for your country. There are so many serious problems facing us, we need your strong positive influence.

Given the history of the last 14 years,
any Republican has to be heroic to go to Washington, face the double standard that exists there.

My prayers are with you.

DEAR MR. BAKER:

WE ARE EXTREMELY PLEASED THAT YOU HAVE AGREED TO SERVE AS THE PRESIDENT'S CHIEF OF STAFF FOR THE REMAINDER OF HIS TERM. YOUR RECORD OF CREDIBILITY, INTEGRITY, AND COMMON SENSE APPROACH TO GOVERNMENT WILL BE A REFRESHING CHANGE TO THIS ADMINISTRATION'S GENERAL PRACTICE.

WE ARE BOTH LIFE-LONG DEMOCRATS. HOWEVER, BECAUSE THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY CONTINUES TO SELF-DESTRUCT AND, TO DATE, STILL HAVE NO CREDIBLE CANDIDATE FOR THE 1988 ELECTION, WE WERE BOTH LOOKING FORWARD TO CASTING OUR VOTE FOR YOU. WE URGE YOU TO KEEP YOUR OPTIONS OPEN FOR THE PRESIDENCY. WE ARE TIRED OF "MEDIA" CANDIDATES AND WANT SOMEONE OF SUBSTANCE, LIKE YOU, IN THE WHITE HOUSE.

GOOD LUCK IN THE NEXT SEVERAL YEARS.

I just want to tell you, as a long time admirer of your work in the Senate, I was looking forward to your presidential candidacy.

However, I'm very glad you accepted the position as Chief of Staff for President Reagan, as I think you are just what this country and the president need for these next two years.

I still hope to vote for you for president at a later date.
