Honorable Howard Baker
Chief of Staff
The White House
Washington, D.C.

Dear Howard:

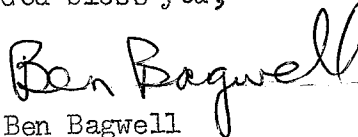

As a person who has been in news media work for 30 years and as one who has supported Republican and Democratic candidates from time to time I want to thank you for accepting your new responsibility.

When the Republican Party needed a voice of moderation, a voice of calm in the Watergate period you were there. Once again the nation in a threat of crisis and you appear.

You are the lone Republican I would have voted for in 1988, but I respect you even more now. You, sir, are a true statesman.

It is persons such as yourself who make the American system believable. I am sure there are many more people across America who share my feelings that you are the right person at the right time.

God bless you,

Ben Bagwell

Dear Senator Baker

Thank you for your willingness to step into a deplorable situation and to make your integrity, experience, ability to listen and communicate, patience and intelligence available to keep a disorganized Executive Department from being extremely handicapped for two years.

Further, it is a bitter and sad reality that so many of us who vote in all elections have nothing to say about the candidates. It has been my long time desire to vote for you for President. Alas, that has never been possible. So, I am grateful that you are, once again, in a position of major influence.

May God bless you abundantly.

Most sincerely,

Memo

March 20, 1987
Howard Baker, Chief of Staff:
The White House, 20000

I hope somebody knows what is going on around here.

Everybody, the country, the President and Mrs. Reagan is looking forward to you. You are highly respected and will serve the President well. I am a partisan Republican, so you had better.

Goodness knows all the strings and bows the President will endure. But with all his faults, he is still the leader of our country.

I love him ^{as} if he were a Democrat but if it comes out that he knew about the Contra Swarms then he and Vice President Bush should resign. I don't know what kind of a President Wright would be, I hope not as bad as the last Person in his stead.

Well, I believe the President and if I am wrong and up in 1973 then I hope for the best ^{for} the country.

God Bless America

Dear Senator Baker:

Thank you so much for putting your country above yourself and accepting the difficult (even semi-impossible!) task of restoring some order and common sense to the government. For the first time since 1981, I can believe that this nation will somehow make it through 1987 and 1988. After all the "Presidents" we've had, like the Michael Deaver/Nancy Reagan administration, the Larry Speakes administration, the Donald Regan vs. Nancy Reagan revolution, it's a relief to know our current President, you, is someone who's qualified for the office.

Once again, The Volunteer State has lived up to its name. None of the legendary Tennesseans of the past ever took on such a difficult job. Good luck, and God bless.

Sincerely,

Louise Ackerman

PS: If the folks in Heaven are allowed to know what's going on down here, I can just see Sen. Everett Dirksen grinning and saying, "That's my boy."
