SECRET/SENSITIVE

ISSUE PAPER NO. 17

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: STATE, DEFENSE, NSC, CIA

SUBJECT: Current Policy Regarding the Operational Security of CTJTF

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The US public, our allies, and our adversaries, including terrorists, are not adequately aware of U.S. competence or resources committed to combatting terrorism. Current policy requires a system of cover, security and classification concerning all aspects of CTJTF/DELTA/Seal Team Six. A public affairs strategy designed to announce U.S. counterterrorist capabilities while stringently protecting missions, tactics and procedures does not currently exist. Additionally, much of the protected information concerning counterterrorist forces has reached the media and the public domain. The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Public Affairs) working in conjunction with the National Coordinator for Combatting Terrorism should develop a comprehensive public affairs strategy for counterterrorist forces. Additionally, a perception management program which incorporates OPSEC, PSYOP and deception should be developed by JCS, in coordination with CIA and State, and forwarded to the NCA for review and approval with subsequent distribution to appropriate agencies.

Care must be taken not to imply targeting the US populace in a PSYOP campaign. The focus of the program must be to preserve US CT capabilities and how and when these forces might be used.

Objectives of the perception management program should be:

- To preserve essential secrecy about US military counterterrorist capabilities and how forces might be deployed and employed during training and exercises.
- To provide options to support crisis resolution short of using force, preserve essential secrecy of force preparations, movement and US intentions; gain the initiative, surprise and superiority when forces are used; and, when necessary, support the security and withdrawal of forces.

ISSUE PAPER NO. 18

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: STATE, TREASURY, JUSTICE

SUBJECT: Prohibition of Training and Support/Counterterrorism/
Mercenary Training Camps

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: Appropriate government agencies should continue the effort to employ the expanded ITAR to control the provision of defense services, including training in the use of defense articles such as firearms and explosives, to foreign nationals at mercenary camps in this country. The results of this effort should be assessed after the expanded ITAR has been in effect for one year (1 January 1986). This review should determine whether additional legislation is required to ensure that training and support of terrorists is not permitted under U.S. law.

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: STATE, JUSTICE, CIA

SUBJECT: International Informant Incentives

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The State Department, in concert with the Department of Justice and the Central Intelligence Agency, should take the lead in an interdepartmental effort to develop a unilateral and/or bilateral program of informant incentives and, initiate requisite legislative action to support such a program. Examples of incentives which might be offered (in addition to monetary rewards) are: immunity from prosecution for previous offenses; and, granting of U.S. (or other) citizenship to the informant and immediate family.

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: JUSTICE

SUBJECT: Death Penalty for Hostage Taking

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The Justice Department should pursue legislation which provides that individuals who murder U.S. citizens during a hostage taking would be subject to the death penalty. It is suggested that this be included as part of Senate Bill 239, which calls for imposition of the death penalty for certain Federal crimes: treason, espionage, crimes involving the death of a person and an attempt to assassinate the President.

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: JUSTICE

SUBJECT: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The Department of Justice should take the lead in an interagency review of the provisions of the FOIA to include determining the validity of reported abuses of the intent of the Act. If the review does in fact conclude that there are abuses, the Justice Department should develop legislation to close the loophole in the law. Counterterrorism is only one small part of this major issue.
