ISSUE PAPER NO. 8

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: STATE

SUBJECT: Extradition Treaties

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The State Department should continue its program of opening negotiations on extradition treaties with countries with democratic regimes and fair judicial systems with a view to limiting the scope of the political offense exception. To achieve this goal, Senate approval of the first such revision (US/UK) to be concluded is a must. The State Department appropriately has the lead in the effort to secure approval. However, assistance from other U.S. Government agencies may be essential to making the Administration's anti-terrorism case.

ISSUE PAPER NO. 9

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: STATE, DEFENSE NSC

SUBJECT: Response Options to Terrorism

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The Office of the National Coordinator for Combatting Terrorism in the NSC will maintain a list of current options for response to terrorist threats or incidents. The Coordinator will collect the list both through his capacity as Chairman of the Interdepartmental Group on Terrorism and as Executive Director of the TIWG, and through consultations with the other representatives on both the IG/T and the TIWG. These options should represent the widest range of actions imaginable, covert as well as overt, in order to give our nation the ability to act with a reasonable chance of success when and if required, in an infinite variety of possible scenarios. No options should be excluded because of a low likelihood of employment. This range of capabilities should better prepare the USG to respond appropriately and promptly to terrorist incidents.

SUBJECT: Death Penalty for Hostage Taking

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The Justice Department should pursue legislation which provides that individuals who murder U.S. citizens during a hostage taking would be subject to the death penalty. It is suggested that this be included as part of Senate Bill 239, which calls for imposition of the death penalty for certain Federal crimes: treason, espionage, crimes involving the death of a person and an attempt to assassinate the President.

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: JUSTICE

SUBJECT: Freedom of Information Act (FOIA)

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The Department of Justice should take the lead in an interagency review of the provisions of the FOIA to include determining the validity of reported abuses of the intent of the Act. If the review does in fact conclude that there are abuses, the Justice Department should develop legislation to close the loophole in the law. Counterterrorism is only one small part of this major issue.

ISSUE PAPER NO. 41

COGNIZANT ACTIVITY: STATE, JUSTICE

SUBJECT: Adequacy of the International Legal System to Deal with Terrorism

DRAFT RECOMMENDATION: The Departments of State and Justice should continue government-to-government contacts and stimulate appropriate private and academic initiatives that address the relationship between terrorism and the domestic and international legal system. State and Justice should seek every opportunity to improve the international consensus for governments to act in counter-terrorist events to the full extent of the authority available to them.
