

Immigration Reform

Choose from one of the following three options:

1. Write a letter to the President on behalf of a fictional character or someone you know describing his, her, or their thoughts on immigration today. Follow one of the models from the Correspondence section of the “From the Source” guide.

2. Outline four ideas you would use to reform or change immigration policy today.

You may use bullet points to describe your ideas.

3. Go back and look at the letter you chose for your DOCUMENT ANALYSIS.

Answer the following question in detail:

- Did the person or people you read about in your documents have their needs met by the Immigration Reform bill of 1986? Explain in at least one paragraph.
