Biography

Office of Media Relations History Note

The Office of Media Relations handled all press contacts with the White House other than the actual White House press corps. It was created in the fall of 1981 from the Office of Media Liaison in the Press Office and the Television Office from the Office of Communication. The office had various names throughout the administration including: Media Liaison; Office of Media Relations and Planning; Office of Media Relations and Broadcasting; Office of Media and Broadcasting Relations. The staff, physical location in the White House, and general functions remained exactly the same during these various name changes. For ease of use and to reflect their organizational unity the Library is naming this office: Office of Media Relations.

Scope and Content Note

Scope Note

The White House receives a multitude of requests for Presidential messages for organization meetings, tributes to particular individuals, public service announcements on behalf of various causes and charitable fundraising, and taped endorsements for political candidates. During the Reagan Administration this became a highly developed function, and the President regularly sat for tapings for these requests. The Television Office coordinated all aspects of the multiple tapings and coordinating the scripts of these messages. In addition, the Television Office coordinated all the arrangements with outside media for taped interviews with the President, nationally televised press conferences and nationally televised addresses. Elizabeth Board became the Director of the Television Office when it briefly functioned as a separate unit from the Office of Media Relations from 1985-1987. The office was recombined with Media Relations in 1987 and Board became the Director of the combined offices until the end of the administration.

Elizabeth Board was assisted by a series of television coordinators: Caroline Heinz; Flo Taussig; Caroline Rhoden and John Peschong. The files resulting from the multiple tapings form a series within the Media Relations Office collection.

The Elizabeth Board collection consists of eight series: SERIES I: Correspondence, 1985-1989; SERIES II: Subject File, 1985-1989; SERIES III: Briefings, 1987-1989; SERIES IV: Interviews, 1985-1989; SERIES V: Press Conferences, 1985-1989; SERIES VI: Speeches and Addresses, 1985-1989; SERIES VII: Events, 1985-1989; SERIES VIII: Tapings, 1985-1989.
