Biography

Biography

Shirin R. Tahir-Kheli was born in 1944 in Hyderabad, India. She earned an M.A. and Ph.D. in International Relations from the University of Pennsylvania and a B.A. from Ohio Wesleyan University.

From 1972-1985 Tahir-Kheli served in several capacities at Temple University: academic advisor in the office of the dean; assistant professor for political science; and then tenured associate professor for political science. From 1980-1981 Dr. Tahir-Kheli was a faculty member at the U.S. Army War College, in Carlisle, PA. Her association with the Reagan Administration began in 1982 when she became a member of the Policy Planning Staff in the Office of the Secretary of State. In 1984 she served in the National Security Council staff as Director of Political-Military Affairs, and from 1986-1989 was Director of Near East and South Asian Affairs Directorate. From 1990-1993 she served as the Alternate United State Representative to the United Nations for Special Political Affairs, a post which carried the rank of Ambassador. She also was a member of the United States Presidential Commission on Public Service during 1992-1993.

From 1993-1995 she served as a senior fellow at the Center of International Studies at Princeton University. Following her time at Princeton Tahir-Kheli became a senior fellow at Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies, where she was the founding Director of the South Asia Program at the Foreign Policy Institute from 1999-2002. In 2001 she was the head of the United States delegation to the United Nations Commission on Human Rights session in Geneva.

Tahir-Kheli returned to the National Security Council staff during the George W. Bush Administration in 2003 as a Special Assistant to the President and Senior Director for Democracy, Human Rights and International Operations before leaving in 2005 to become the Senior Advisor to the Secretary of State on United Nations reform efforts. In 2006 she became the first Ambassador for Women's Empowerment in the U.S. Government appointed by Secretary Condoleezza Rice, where she focused on multifaceted outreach to the women of the Muslim world.

She is the author and editor of several monographs, including: India, Pakistan and the United States: Breaking with the Past published by the Council on Foreign Relations (1997), The United States and Pakistan: The Evolution of an Influence Relationship (Praeger 1982), Manipulating Religion for Political Gain in Pakistan: Consequences for the U.S. and the Region, (Johns Hopkins SAIS 2015) and numerous journal articles.

Scope and Content Note

Scope and Content Note

Shirin Tahir-Kheli was the Director for the Near East and South Asia \(NESA\) Directorate from 1986-1989. She served as Director for Political-Military Affairs from May 1984-April 1986. The Library has not separated her two offices at this time and the following inventory is for her entire time at the National Security Council during the Reagan Administration.

The Tahir-Kheli collection consists of three series: SERIES I: Country File; SERIES II: Subject File, and SERIES III: Chronological File.
