Scope and Content Note

The following material appears to document the year-long process preceding the actual Conference, held during September, 1983 in Washington, DC. The Conference had Washington, DC offices with a staff director - Steve Skancke. The principal coordinator on the White House side was Rodger B. Porter. In addition, the material covers some of the work relating four preparatory conferences held at Duke University, St. Louis University, University of San Diego, and Carnegie-Mellon Institute.
