Biography

Biography

Commander Philip Dur joined the National Security Council as senior staff member of Defense Policy in September 1982 replacing Christopher Shoemaker. In 1983 NSC Defense Policy was reorganized into the NSC Political-Military Affairs Directorate and Dur became a Deputy Director. By the time Captain Dur left the NSC in November 1984 he was Director of the NSC Political-Military Affairs.

Dur received a bachelor's degree in government and international studies and a master's degree in Soviet East European studies from the University of Notre Dame. He earned a master's degree in public administration and a doctorate in political economy and government from Harvard University.

Philip Dur was commissioned from the NROTC program at the University of Notre Dame in August 1965. During his naval career, he achieved the rank of Rear Admiral and held such posts as Assistant Deputy Chief of Naval Operations; Director, Navy Strategy Division; Commander of Battle Force United States Sixth Fleet; Commander of Cruiser Destroyer Group Eight; United States Defense Attaché accredited to the Government of France; and Commanding Officer, USS Yorktown.

In 2004, Philip Dur was Corporate Vice President, Program Operations and President of Northrop Grumman's Ship Systems Sector having joined the company in 1999 following five years with Tenneco Inc. where he served as Vice President, Worldwide Business Development and Strategy.

Scope and Content Note

Scope Note

The Philip Dur collection consists of memos, correspondence, cables, reports, meeting agendas, meeting minutes, National Security Study Directives, National Security Decision Directives, notes, charts, working papers, press releases, issue papers, and publications re Dur's and other NSC staffer's work on military and foreign affairs in the Middle East. Majority of the collection is Dur's work product with the exception of the Lebanon Crisis Pre-Planning Group File which was inherited from Oliver North and John Poindexter. The material is arranged in five series: Subject File, 1982-84; Chronological File, 1982-1984; Country File, 1984; Lebanon Crisis Pre-Planning Group File, 1982-1983; and Middle East Trip File, April 1984.
